Sleeping With The Enemy

Dynazty

You live a life full of empty lies
Your way, no compromise, yeah
You don't walk like you talk
You live to antagonize
No need to sympathize

Can't you see
You're in no position
To rule over me
Leave me be

Sleeping with the enemy
Drowning in your misery
Lost your own dignity
But you don't wanna take no more
Get rid of your enemy
Break out of your misery
Win back your own dignity
If you don't wanna take no more

You set the pace and you dictate
You live to manipulate
You don't talk like you walk
You live the world that you create
Your way fills me up with hate

Can't you see
The doors are closed
On your little plan
Now you're the man in the trash can

Sleeping with the enemy...
