

The Beast Inside

Dynazty

Lost you are inside, feeding on the ashes of the past
In the mirror you see a fading shape of what you were
The one who did not yield
The one who marched through fields
Sacrifice your ground to remember who you are

Star! You are!
I will rise from the dark to ignite the spark
Spark! Embark!
Through you will I roar into the dawn

Fly high, rise from the darkness inside you
Braving is what I will do
Fire will be raving
Release the child, you'll see
Your heart will show your destiny
Echoes the beast inside

The sweeping touch of time ticking as the urge begins to glow
As your eyes can see the open roads of opportunity
A vital force awakens
Everything is clear
The wind whispering back to you
You weren't born to a fate in chains

Chains! I'll break!
To see through your dead eyes, covered in lies
Lies! Decries!
Your life until it breaks the soul apart

Fly high, rise from the darkness inside you
Braving is what I will do
Fire will be raving
Release the child, you'll see
Your heart will show your destiny
Echoes the beast inside

Face the challenge, defy the silence
Fill every vein with fire
The world will see the spark in your eyes
With precision, shape your vision
Make a stand, seize the chance
The beast's roar will blaze the sky

Fly high, rise from the darkness inside you
Braving is what I will do
Fire will be raving
Release the child, you'll see
Your heart will show your destiny
Echoes the beast inside

Set out to find your path
Fear of trying is gone at last
Echoes the beast inside
