

Untamer Of Your Soul

Dynazty

You were born to be a rider
A child of the wind at heart
The fury lies within your eyes
I knew right from the start
Like a man locked in to a prison
Like an animal in a cage
You're wound up tight and ready to fight
As you start to shake with rage

Fill your heart with gasoline
Inject a swell of adrenaline
Like a fighter, a survivor
Untamer of your soul release the furious you
Embrace the wild is what you do
You're a fighter, a survivor
Untamer of your soul

Going a million miles an hour
Like a bullet you ride on the wind
You're charging through, all set to do
Whatever it takes to win
And you don't need rhyme or reason
Only fuel to fill your soul
As you're letting loose the golden goose
When your heart is in control

Fill your heart with gasoline
Inject a swell of adrenaline
Like a fighter, a survivor
Untamer of your soul release the furious you
Embrace the wild is what you do
You're fighter, a survivor
Untamer of your soul

It's all to clear,
it's coming here
Something that they've never seen before, yeah
Hold on tight,
it's in your sight
Can't you see the world is in your hands
Untamer, untamer!

Untamer of your soul

Fill your heart with gasoline
Inject a swell of adrenaline
Like a fighter, a survivor
Fill your heart with gasoline
Inject a swell of adrenaline Like a fighter, a survivor
Untamer of your soul release the furious you
Embrace the wild is what you do
You're a fighter A survivor
Untamer of your
Fill your heart with gasoline
Inject the swell of adrenaline
Like a fighter A survivor
Untamer of your soul release the furious you

Embrace the wild is what you do
You're a fighter A survivor
Untamer of your soul
