

I could hear her breath
Through dreams and depth
My heart froze as she rose
Through my inner noise
I heard that voice again
For lust is but a whisper away
Fierce but delicate and frail
I hear her again

They rise
Memories through noise
The sound of a voice
That left me with no choice
Blood swell and pulse in waves crash in
I give in
Forever I'm yours

An extended dream where touch was real
My defense broke as she spoke
Only in physical but so unforgettable
And how my heart sang true that day
Strong and finely tuned
I came through
To the essence of truth

They rise
Memories through noise
The sound of a voice
That left me with no choice
Blood swell and pulse in waves crash in
I give in
Forever I'm yours

Love is but a whisper away
Fierce but delicate and frail
I hear you again

We rise
Memories through noise
The sound of her voice
Leaving me with no choice
Blood swell and pulse in waves crash in
I give in
Forever I'm yours
Waves crash in
I give in
Forever I'm yours
