

Golden Path

Dyslesia

I lay down in the hands of God
And u know what he told me?
That love needs two hearts
To open out and shine
But that there's only one key to faith:
To trust and share ur lover's claim
And I need two hearts
To open out and shine

(Chorus)

A rising feel, a deep understanding
Nothing to take u away
Noone to tie us down
Faith scintillating
To reach our golden path, could it be u?
Could it be u?

I lay down in the hands of God
And u know what he showed me?
Million trends of worlds spreading
The frame of all lives fading

(Chorus)

(3 times repeat)

Faith scintillating
To reach our golden path, could it be u?
Could it be u?

I tasted the tears of God
And u know what they taught me?
Crystal-clear is the tickle of joy
Ravishing ur beauty for all
And we don't need no harm
When all it takes is to lay down
