Keep Myself on Edge

DZ Deathrays

On the edge of the blue sky
Falling backwards through blue light
Everyone saying it's alright
I'd always thought you'd tell me

Keep on the edge just to feel right
Running backwards with closed eyes
Rather than see what's behind
I'd always want to tell you

Guess I'll be anxious anymore
Fell in love with feeling overwrought
Guess I'll be anxious anymore
Myself on the edge of every thought

My blood distorts all my senses
Trying to make it work put my heart on the canvas
Let my blood fill up my skin

On the edge and I feel light
Heading back to what felt right
Before I fell through the blue light
I'd always thought you'd tell me

Keep on the edge of each night
Counting backwards with each try
Want that feeling of wound tight
I'd always want to tell you
