

Love & Destruction

DZ Deathrays

Yeah, these are the days of love and destruction
Knock you off your feet
It's gonna kick you in the guts, it's like woah

You're gonna feel it
Hit like a truck
Fall through the ceiling
Left in the dust
You try to make it
You're out of time
Don't try to fake it
Just get in line because

These are the days of love and destruction
Knock you off your feet
It's gonna kick you in the guts, it's like woah

Yeah, these are the days of love and destruction
Hot on your heels
It's gonna catch up with you all, it's like woah

Ah, you're alive and you're kicking
The tension of a t-t-time bomb
No time to punch your ticket
Alright, you know it's coming

Look for the meaning
Who can you trust?
Gives you that feeling
You're one of us
You wanna take some
Well, get in line
Hearts will be broken
Just one more time because

These are the days of love and destruction
Knock you off your feet
It's gonna kick you in the guts, it's like woah

And it rips through the fabric of measured time
And it hits like a hammer on a broken chime

Because these are the days of love and destruction
These are the days of love and destruction
These are the days of love and destruction
Hot on your heels
It's gonna catch up with you all, it's like...

You're alive and you're kicking
The tension of a t-t-time bomb
No time to punch your ticket
Alright, alright, you know it's coming

These are the days of love and destruction
These are the days of love and destruction
These are the days of love and destruction
Hot on your heels

It's gonna catch up with you all, it's like...
