Ocean Exploder

DZ Deathrays

This feeling runs through my blood
Ideas lost like a stick in the mud
Waiting for the flood
Calm the ocean
What does this city want?
You barely felt sick then you're coughing up blood
Chase forgotten love
Calm the ocean

Yeah
The tides of being alone
The tides of being in love

Yeah
The tides of being alone
The tides of being in love

Some like sail alone yeah
Some put it down to no self-esteem
I just want you to notice
Calm the ocean
Remember when you used to tell me
All things you wanted and all the things you dreamed
Now it's just a forced departure
Calm the ocean

Yeah
The tides of being alone
The tides of being in love

Yeah
The tides of being alone
The tides of being in love
