

Run the Red

DZ Deathrays

Living in a red line
Wasting my years
Giving my secrets
To your deaf ears
I don't wanna talk about it
I don't wanna fret
Feeling free but at a price
Can't pay this debt

You got me running through the red
Live my life to excess
Through the scene I can't look back
You're in my head
Through the red is where I see ya

Can you hear the static hum?
It's in your ears
A gift from your only love
You feel the hit
I don't really care about it
I don't give a shit
Feeling free but at a price
I'm on the edge now

You got me running through the red
Live my life to excess
Through the scene I can't look back
You're in my head
Through the red is where I see ya

And now we're running through the red
Live my life to excess
Through the scene I can't look back
You're in my head
Through the red is where I see ya
