

Silver Lining

DZ Deathrays

Creating something worthwhile
Keeps me more than satisfied
But the more I lose the sense of
Of a pastime
I can't resist it bottled up
And broken when the time is right
It'll fall to the ground and
Shatter right if I try

Something in the way
Storm clouds in my head
I need a clearer day
Shine on the edge
Keep my eye out for a silver lining

There's a moment that we all know
When obsession is a bright light
Keep forgetting to check my phone
And I, I like that
I think about it day and night
To the point where I've exhausted thoughts
There's no message there's no high horse
What would I
Would I know?

Something in the way
Storm clouds in my head
I need a clearer day
Shine on the edge
Shine on shine on silver lining

Give me something I can rely on
Heavy thunder in my mind
I keep holding out for a silver lining...
