Let The Counselor speak (Uh-oh)

The wait is now over, two Vallejo bulldozers
All about that dollar out the Mare Island water
It's somethin' about it that's in our soul
Check the weather, them Vallejo niggas cold
We are legendary, iconic and defiant
And your motherfuckin' money straight just like a wheel alignment
You gotta ex out the suckers and keep your focus
Stay with real ones 'cause the rest hocus pocus
My ninja, I've been buying land since the '90s
From the Hillside, in the hills you could find me
Left wrist, right wrist, blinding
Per-per-perpetual, binding
In Napa Valley taste testing new product
Insomnia, I ain't been down since I got up
When you go the distance relentless, remember, God's in attendance
Pursue your dreams and your visions, speak your money into existence

Is that 40 Water? (Huh)
With the crib by the water? (Yeah, huh, fact)
With the chain made of water? (Ah)
