

Let Me Oh

E-dubble

[Intro]

Ok here we go
Freestyle friday number nine
Now before you jump the gun on anything
This is suppose to be like a house party type of song
Like 2004, so sing along when you can

[Hook:]

That clock keeps tickin' like a metronome
And my thoughts keep tellin' me to get me home
But my balls keep tellin' me to let me OHH
OH - just let me OHH
That clock keeps tickin' like a metronome
And my thoughts keep tellin' me to get me home
But my balls keep tellin' me to let me OHH
OH - just let me OHH
That clock keeps tickin' like a metronome
And my thoughts keep tellin' me to get me home
But my balls keep tellin' me to let me OHH
Fuck all that shit just let me GO

Ohhers and tastemakers, makers no chaser
Gets the blood flowing like a fuckin' pacemaker
Cut the middleman and inhale the vapors
Mad men (ha ha) oh ten don drapers
Cut the jukebox on make sure the woofers blow, blow
We gon' sit here until them heffers go, go
Holler at the tens, then spend a little dough
Not on them, no, they can buy their own drinks (ohhh)
Shake that work week off, 5 days in the bucket
Fuck it, you got a boss who's a jerk who doesn't?
Throw on some wu-tang bring the mothafuckin' ruckus
There is no pretext we are living and we love it
On a budget nevermind, we just nudge it to the side
Give the kids a little time we are living till' we die
We are focused and we hustle but we still be getting high
No exception to the rule do what you do to get by cause

[Hook]

At a house party gettin' jammed up
You are Tony Danza
When they ask whose the fuckin' boss, put your hand up
Never put it down cause you're banging to the anthem
2010 trend put the iPod on random
Wonder why it tried to play this instead of Hanson
Probably cause it gets the people moving like a handgun
Just like the little white fellas up in Hampden
Happy easter from the mothafuckers livin' in the mansion

Yea, freestyle friday number nine
Thanks to Ratatat for letting me steal their beat
It was very kind of them
They're nice guys
Anyway happy easter weekend I guess, I'm about to go up to Philly
I'll tell you why I chose this beat
I was driving around it was really sunny the other day

And it made me feel like it was a sunday morning after church as a little kid

When a my pepper used to buy me and my sister slurpies

[Hook]

Yea, freestyle friday number nine

It is April 2nd, everybody have a great weekend
