

I can see a purple moon behind the maple trees
And I'm feeling so alone - I'm lost in fantasies
You just told my hand
But I want so much more of you
Oh I wanna taste your lips to prove your love is true

Why you're so shy
Won't I do any harm
If I am falling into your arms
I'll make you feel fine
Why you're so shy
Just tame me if you can
If your love is strong we will get along
Together tonight
Why you're so shy
Why you're so shy

I believe you are a man who'll make me feel so high
I believe those wildest dreams of mine
You'll satisfy
Love is more than holding hands
It's total ecstasy
If you'll give me all your love
I'll make you feel so free
