

Chasing Down A Dream

Eagle Eye Cherry

Soon as you looked at me
I knew what you're gonna do
So give me a moment
'Cause I know we've got some to loose

These are the reasons we fight
And we cry and we bruise
So darling you said you would leave me
Well here's your excuse

And so much for chasing down a dream
That's a dead end street
Oh
So much for chasing down a dream
That's a dead end street

I just need a dreamer
Who can give me something real
So much for chasing down a dream
That's a dead end street

We were sleep walking it's plain
As the ghost of your face
Beautiful tragedies lead to
So many mistakes
Thought I was
Saving you
But you were
Saving me
Now if we're
Being true
You and I will Make believe

Oh so much for chasing down a dream
That's a dead end street
Oh so much for chasing down a dream
That's a dead end street
I just need a dreamer
Who can give me something real
So much for chasing down a dream
That's a dead end street

Oh maybe sometime
This stretch of water has flow'd and
It turned a new tide
Been on its own and realized

Woke up from winter
No longer bitter
It winds its way and says goodbye
So thank you for chasing down this dream
Of you and me
Oh thank you for chasing down this dream

But we both need a new one
One we can believe

Oh we both need a new one
One we can believe

So so long to chasing down this dream

That's a dead end street
