

Disposable

Eagle Eye Cherry

Well every day
You sit in the dark
You're wasting away
Coming a part

The family you raised
Yes they're long time gone

And now you are disposable

Shout at the walls
You shout for an end
Looking for fault
You blame it on them

Sure it ain't fair
Think of all you've done

And now you are disposable
Now you are disposable

Memory fades
Along with your needs
There's a price that you paid
So hard to conceive

Your dreams ran away
Yes they're long time gone

And now you are disposable
Now you are disposable

Now you're going rogue
Yeah you think it doesn't matter
Alone is all you know
You remember when you lost her
You know you gotta go
Yeah you know you gotta break free

Now you are disposable
Now you are disposable
Now you are disposable
Now you are disposable

You are disposable
You are disposable
