One Good Reason

Eagle Eye Cherry

Give me one good reason
That I should care
Give me one good reason
And I'll be there
Like a thief you've stolen
Like rain on a grave
Like a priest who's spoken
But failed to save

Now the air is empty And the ground the same Love has gone to be buried Beside my name

Give me one good reason That I should care Give me one good reason And I'll be there

Why couldn't you have told me About your liar's kiss I can't believe you'd leave me At a time like this

And the wind is howling And it's a dying dream And my faith is silent While my doubts scream

Give me one good reason That I should care Give me one good reason And I'll be there

Give me one good reason Give me one good reason Give me one good reason That I should care

Give me one good reason Give me one good reason Give me one good reason That I should care

Give me one good reason Give me one good reason Give me one good reason That I should care
