

50 Proof

eaJ

Do you still wake to sunsets
And eat home alone
Watching the moonrise
Asking on and on
What's gone wrong

How you been doing
You sleeping alright
I'm worried your tears
Still wake you up at night
And you know why
But you don't know why
At the same time

Who holds you on your 50 proof high
Been worried all night
Wondering all night
Who loves you now

Who wipes the problems
Like leaves turned autumn
When they won't stop falling
From your eyes
And from your sighs
Who loves you
Now
