

Guess Not

eaJ

Feels like God's been upset all night long
Rain will start pouring so much
I just won't dry off
I'm inside
Cause I told you I was so done
Couldn't deal with blood shed no more
Said I'd be alright
Want you out tonight
Burn my heart on the sky so you'd see your own crime

I hurt me hoping you'd hurt too
Funny how I left
Cause you were a lie and now I'm one
Cause I said that I wouldn't but I miss you so damn much
Now I'm just like you cause
I said I'd be alright
But I guess not
