

You feel me broken
Words are mistaken
Thinking you pushed me away
To be breathin' and livin' and happy like everyone do
You just felt different
Words are mistaken
Thinking you felt the same
Didn't need no scene out of a movie, but you ain't just you

It makes me feel safe every time that you chuckle
Like nobody's watching, a little obnoxious
But that's just the thing that felt right about, right about you

It was all perfect
In my civic not worth shit
Had nothin' too crazy, but crazy how perfect and Kodak it felt
We didn't know shit
But that made it worth it
All I had wanted was you, and that's it, but you didn't
Oh, well

You're just a liar
Sweet liar
You're just a liar
Sweet liar

Do I regret it
I don't really know
Was it all that you poured on me
Warmer than blood dripping off of me, cold

It makes me feel safe every time that you chuckle
Like nobody's watching, a little obnoxious
But that's just the thing that felt right about, right about you

It was all perfect
In my civic not worth shit
Had nothin' too crazy, but crazy how perfect and Kodak it felt
We didn't know shit
But that made it worth it
All I had wanted was you, and that's it, but you didn't
Oh, well

You're just a liar
Sweet liar
You're just a liar
Sweet liar
You're just a liar
Sweet liar
You're just a liar

Sweet liar
Sweet liar
