

His Girl

Eamon

Daddy's girl, I know who your poppa is
What a world to think he cares about it
Let me show you what I know to be true 'cause I care
If I'm lying, girl I'm dying, heavens to my hand

Trust me all he'll do is feed you lies, girl I'll try

I can see your eyes, knowing what you need
I'd lay down my life, just to set you free
Make me stomp him out, bring him to his knees
Once I show you light, watch him pack and leave

With all my life, and all my might (trust me 'cause I know)

Lonely girl, I know who whispers to you
Show me girl, what them whispers telling you
If you give me an idea I'll crush them lies with truth
Chop him down and build you up with love to point you to

Take my hand let's stand up pass him by, to the other side

I can see your eyes, knowing what you need
I'd lay down my life, just to set you free
Make me stomp him out, bring him to his knees
Once I show you light, watch him pack and leave

With all my life, and all my might (trust me 'cause I know)
