

Regular Guy

Steve Earle

I'm just a regular guy
Never get rich, but I always get by
I got me a wife and a couple a kids
I done pretty much like my daddy did

He always did the best that he could
Took care of mama and us pretty good
He never got rich but he never did try
He was just a regular guy

Well, the world goes around
I can't stop it
So I'll sit back and watch the sun go down
If it comes back up then this day's a good one

You know I wouldn't be that surprised
I'm just a regular guy and I'll work until the day that I die
I'm too young to quit, too old to hire
These days a man can't afford to retire

Didn't vote for nobody last time
'Cause they wasn't worth a trickle down dime
But one man's promise is another man's lie
And I'm just a regular guy
