

Yesterday

Earshot

Close my eyes pretend that nothing happened, never did
It would be easier
It would be easier
Seal my lips somehow so I could never call your name
It would be easier, that way
And I'm much too proud to say
To say that I was wrong when I made mistakes
And now I search to find a way
To forget you
Yesterday

If I could take your pain away
Would it be easier? Would it be easier?
If you never saw my face
Would it be easier, that way?
And all I want to say
Are all the things I felt I couldn't say
Now I search to find a way
To forget you
Yesterday

Yesterday
To forget you
Yesterday
