

Restless
You've seemingly overtaken
My thoughts
Worries
Nothing but meaningless
Overly critical, overthinking

(You and I) We belong together
(You and I) No, there is no other
(There's no fire or rain) I am yours, you are mine
(That could keep me away) I just need you to know that
(You and I) Forever and ever
(You and I) We will love each other
(There's no fire or rain) I am yours, you are mine
(That could keep us away) I just need you to know that

Are you really who you seem to be
(Can you feel me)
(Can you hear me)
Is this real or something of a hopeless case
Can you tell me
(Overly critical) overthinking

(You and I) We belong together
(You and I) No, there is no other
(There's no fire or rain) I am yours, you are mine
(That could keep me away) I just need you to know that
(You and I) Forever and ever
(You and I) We will love each other
(There's no fire or rain) I am yours, you are mine
(That could keep us away) I just need you to know that

If heaven does really exist
Then show yourself now
I need to feel sure of all this
God only knows that
I've come too far now to only give up
I'm in too deep now
Just to let go

(You and I) We belong together
(You and I) No, there is no other
(Ain't no fire or rain) I am yours, you are mine
(That could keep me away) I just need you to know that
(You and I) Forever and ever
(You and I) We will love each other
(There's no fire or rain) I am yours, you are mine
(That could keep us away) I just need you to know that
I just want you to know how I
Feel
