Earth Crisis

There will be no compromise, no more negotiating.
If you refuse to change, then you're guilty and must be destroyed. Thoughts of superiority, your supremist crimes must end.
You're a demon with blood on your hands, your death will bring their freedom. I can't stand by and let the innocent die.
By opressing innocent life you've lost your rights so now your end is justified. There will be no compromise, no more neg otiating.
If you refuse to change, then you're guilty and must be destroyed. Thoughts of superiority, your supremist crimes mu st end.
You're a demon with blood on your hands, your death will bring their freedom. I can't stand by and let the innocent die.
By opressing innocent life you've lost your rights so now your end is justified. Don't think that you've been given a choice.
Your actions serve as your voice. Your selfishness destroys the earth, so you've left us with no other choice.
For the fetus, for the cat, for the cow, for the rat.
For innocent victims we will attack, we will attack, we will at tack.
