

Take You to Heaven

Earth, Wind & Fire

Girl there is an open door, feeling you haven't explored
You're awake through the night
I want to be there just to hold you so tight
Can't wait one minute more, this longing for you can't be ignored
Am I moving too fast?
I want to be there to console you

I'll take you to heaven tonight
Make you feel you like paradise
Like a woman should feel
I'll do you right if it takes all night take you to heaven

You, want to trust in love one more time
But you caution your heart
Let your mind believe in me
Cause I'd never do nothing to hurt you
Come here, I'm feeling you girl so strong
Tell me baby how could this be wrong
When every kiss, says I'd never be the man to desert you

I'll take you to heaven tonight
Make you feel you like paradise
Like a woman should feel
I'll do you right if it takes all night (take you to heaven)

Can't sleep, can't eat, I can't breath, ooh wee
I need you right here with me, baby
Cause with you in my life, I tell ya that it's sheer ecstasy

I'll take you to heaven tonight
Make you feel you like paradise
Like a woman should feel
I'll do you right if it takes all night (take you to heaven)
