

Wanna Be the Man

Earth, Wind & Fire

Yo, bust this
I got a plan to take you by the hand
And whisper in your ear that
I wanna be your man
So understand the bottom line plan
I do, do, do, do wanna be your man

You've been on a mission, baby
To find the man in your life
You heart, it's been illin', baby
To find someone to treat you right

The question now is me
Will it hurt ya to believe
The love you see in my eyes?
The distant you choose to be my sincerity
Will bring you around in time

Wanna be, wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
Wanna be, I wanna be the man in your life

Right now I need your attention
And be the man when you talk, that you mention
Your old lover he don't need no extension
'Cause he's out and I'm whatcha missin'

I've got a vision, baby
I can see a change coming in sight
My heart open to you, baby
I feel our love coming to light

Alone you do all right
My love will take you high
Higher, higher, higher, higher
I'll be there by your side
On clouds we will ride
Through the raining storm

I need a minute and I'll be in it
You've got the love and you know I wanna win it
Stop looking 'cause you've been found
And your love is cold sweeter than a chocolate mound

So give it to me and understand
That I'm the one who wanna be your man
I gotta plan to take you by the hand
'Cause I wanna, wanna, wanna, wanna, be your man

Bust it
Yo, let's dance, yeah

Funky music and this is def
The kickin' sound of EWF
And they do it like nobody else
Hyped up like myself, yeah

Wanna be, wanna be, wanna be, wanna be

Wanna be, I wanna be the man in your life

Hold on, baby, wait a minute

So give it to me and come my way

And be my lover for the rest of my days

Give it to me and come on through

'Cause I wanna, wanna, wanna, wanna be with you

Wanna be, wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
