

You and I

Earth, Wind & Fire

Baby, here we are,
Waiting here for time, to play the game
Let love steal us away.

Baby here I am, holding charts
To guide us through the storm,
To a brighter day

You and I will be together,
Many lessons, learned-Oh Baby.
From a past, that's live too many lies.
Yesterday is gone forever-Oh Baby,
All that I can see-

You and I living together
Just, you and I groovin' forever-

Trusting every word,
Just to mean, what has been handed down,
In time.
We've known hurt before.

Masters of my dreams,
Create a place to feel this love of mine-
And never hurt no more-

We must trust the dark,
For showing us the stars.
We must trust the rain,
And open up our hearts.

Just, you and I living together.
You and I groovin' forever.
