

Tonite

Eartha Kitt

I'm putting on my best perfume (Tonight)
So you can find me in the room (Tonight)
I plan on keeping things quite dark (Tonight)
You'll see me by my spark (Tonight)

I've ordered dinner just for two (Tonight)
Two dozen oysters just for you (Tonight)
I've just removed their tiny jewel (Tonight)
You're going to need them all for fuel (Tonight)

There's one thing I want you know (I won't let you go)
There's one place you'll never be (That's away from me)
And when I get you in my lair (It's beyond compare)
Well, come here if you dare
And once I've started, you will find (I won't leave your mind)
Under your collar I will stay (I won't go away)
Try to forget me, though you might
Now, why not just give up the fight?

I thought I'd dress is something spry (Tonight)
A pair of stockings and a tie (Tonight)
No, nothing too provocative (Tonight)
Just comfy with a little give (Tonight)

And now I'll chill the gold champagne (Tonight)
Unless that goes against your grain (Tonight)
A glass of vodka over ice (Tonight)
Or just straight up, that would be nice (Tonight)

And when we're finished you will stay (You won't get away)
With me forever and a day (I won't let you stray)
I'm going to keep you in my sight (Smile and wait tonight)
Until you get it right
Because tonight is just the start (You have won my heart)
I'm going to keep you by my side (I won't leave you now)
I'm going to keep you as a pet (Baby, you're my pet)
I am the best you'll ever get

There's one thing I want you know (I won't let you go)
There's one place you'll never be (That's away from me)
And when I get you in my lair (It's beyond compare)
Well, come here if you dare
