

Angel Path

Eartheater

Takes the kind of faith like flying
Off a cliff
This kind of act
Could flip the switch
I've got scars now
But at least I'm not branded

Rip the crinoline
Barbwire curls are not impossible to flip

You doubted me
Doubted my ability
Or was it that you feared what's good
Because it challenged where you stood

Takes the kind of faith like flying off a cliff
This kind of act could flip the switch
I've got scars now but at least I'm not branded

Bet you think of me when the bells ring
Now you're tongue biting life can't deny my wings

Takes the kind of faith like flying off a cliff
This kind of act could flip the switch
I've got scars now but at least I'm Not trying to be branded you gotta believe

At least I'm not branded
I've got scars to back the wings
Please don't think that you get things
From playing it safe

Or is it that you fear what's good
Because it challenged where you stood
