

Clean Break

Earthheater

I thought it was a clean break
Clean break
After she left I saw the shards on the circle mirror table
I was suddenly stable
Yes, I was kundled and underslept
With a vampire facial
After editing all night with Moshpxt at Nina's
Had to sing to her window
'Cause involuntary

Isolation
They're definitely mad at me
Coming up with reasons to be
Because they don't know
Stolen suitcase, broken computer, lost phone
Finally there's time for the Concerto

How concerto of me to not see the shards
Carefully collected and piled
How concerto of me to not see it wasn't a
Clean break
It wasn't a clean break
Clean break
It wasn't a clean break
How concerto of me to not see

To not see

Carefully collected and piled
How concerto of me to not see it wasn't a
Clean break
Clean break
It wasn't a clean break
How concerto of me to not see
