

Fuck on the side to keep some perspective
No double standards, I don't entertain it

Fuck on the side to keep some perspective
No double standards, I don't entertain it
One of the only ones
Ones who've made it to this level of my heart
You're locked in for love, locked in for love

No double standards, I don't entertain it

I know your reason is you're a coward duh
These nights, we fall down from this love
No matter how good
Can't keep us from our demons
From our demons
For all the detail
Takes one to know

Fuck on the side to keep some perspective
No double standards, I don't entertain it
One of the only ones
Ones who made it to this level of my heart
You're locked in for love, locked in for love

Fuck on the side to keep some perspective
No double standards, I don't entertain it
Fuck on the side to keep some perspective
No double standards, I don't want to take 'em
