EARTHGANG

I don't need no part time love
Got no room for one night stands
You take it all too serious
You got a problem don't you
You got a cause, You got an issue
You always trying to control shit
I should have known
I should have known that these bitches wanna stress me
I should have known
I should have known that these hoe's wanna possess me
I do love you, I'm almost through

But you always be tripping baby
Say there's always an issue lately
But you know I'm gone miss you baby (babyyy)
But I can't get through lately
Say you always be tripping baby
Say there's always an issue lately
But you know I'm gone miss you baby (babyyy)
Said there's gonna be ripples
Now I can't kiss you, not like I'm meant to
'Fore it's official let me know

Missed your call
Once again
Promise I'm not up to no good
Baby I been hustling
I hope you understand
I know you wanna take a trip together
My schedule fucking up your plans
I appreciate you for your patience
Even though I know its running thin
I ain't tryna put you on a wait list
Maybe we were better off as friends
But you came for the swipe right
Stayed for the wifi
Know that's a dice roll
Respect the lifestyle
I ain't tryna fight though
Baby girl pipe down
Hold on lil momma where you goin?
Hear me out

But you always be tripping baby
Say there's always an issue lately
But you know I'm gone miss you baby (babyyy)
But I can't get through lately
Say you always be tripping baby
Say there's always an issue lately
But you know I'm gone miss you baby (babyyy)

Tell me it's forever cause it fit right
Guide me by me hips because it sit high

You know I need to you fast forward
Put a new stamp on my passport
