

Warning

East 17

Get up now I've had enough
You best back down it's gon' get rough
There's gonna be trouble, there's gonna be pain
So just turn around, don't play this game

Cause all I've got, to show for this
Is a heart full of pain, a pocket full of rage
I told you so, I won't do that
There's a hurricane coming for you

This is a warning, a warning, a warning
So this is a warning, a warning, a warning
This is a warning, a warning, a warning
So this is a warning, a warning, a warning

I've told you once, I've warned you twice
It's too far gone, you've rolled the dice
I remember your moves, remember the days
You broke the rules now things have changed

Cause all I've got, to show for this
Is a heart full of pain, a pocket full of rage
I told you so, I won't do that
There's a hurricane coming for you

This is a warning, a warning, a warning
So this is a warning, a warning, a warning
This is a warning, a warning, a warning
So this is a warning, a warning, a warning
This is a warning, a warning, a warning

In the end of days we're gonna close this case
Now I'm caged with the burning rage
Rocked like a lion, I fought like a lion
Now I'm speaking you out but it's a bit of bad taste
Never [?] solo
This is how we roll, going [?]
Can't stop me now, now we're on the go
Turn dust to dust, then dust to gold

Cause all I've got, to show for this
Is a heart full of pain, a pocket full of rage
I told you so, I won't do that
There's a hurricane coming for you

Hurricane coming for you

This is a warning, a warning, a warning
So this is a warning, a warning, a warning
This is a warning, a warning, a warning
So this is a warning, a warning, a warning
