

Where Does Love Go

East 17

When she holds his hand
It doesn't feel the same
Oh no
And she's lost that feelin'
When she hears his name
Oh yeah

As she's held in his arms
She no longer feels calm
She's pulling away
She's longin' attention
He has no comprehension
She's pulling away

When you've lost that look in your eye
Where does love go
It ain't the same and you don't know why
Where does love go

Where does it go
Where does it go

He takes her for a meal
It doesn't taste like it used to
Oh no
I guess her taste has changed
She's bored of the menu
Oh yeah

When she's holdin' his hand
He just understand
She's pullin' away
He hopes for more when they kiss
She's just hoping he'll miss
She's pullin' away

When you've lost that look in your eye
Where does love go
It ain't the same and you don't know why
Where does love go

No turnin' back
When it's startin' to crack
And you once was bowled over
Now hits like a bat
It's a shame when the clouds come to stay
Altho' she keeps tryin'
She can't stop from cryin'
Cos love feels like lying
It feels like she's dying
It's a shame when the clouds fill with rain

When you've lost that look in your eye
It ain't the same and you don't know why
Where does love go

Where does love go
It ain't the same and you don't know why
Where does love go
