

crickets!!!

easy life

So you can keep these options open but my only iPhone soaking
'Cause you really caught me slipping, ill catch you up like dried wood

When I see your profile I go wild for it
Then I go ahead and close it, cause that image gon' be frozen
When I'm in the freezer isle of the supermarket sweating
Now I'm driving into traffic just so I could sit a minute cryin g
Imagining your aura as we slither into business - it glistens l ike a crystal

But when I hand over the keys baby all I hear is crickets
When I drop down to my knees baby all I hear is crickets
When I reach out, all I hear is crickets
When I reach out, all I hear is crickets

I'm bugging and I'm freaking out
Eyes - millions of them stare me down
Why do you doubt me?
Why?

So come on spray me with that pesticide
Mouth wide open
A E I O You were in my dream last night
Sleep deprived
And when I call you up... crickets!

All I hear is...
But when I hand over the keys baby all I hear is crickets
When I drop down to my knees baby all I hear is crickets
When I reach out, all I hear is crickets
When I reach out, all I hear is crickets
All I hear is
All I hear is
