

OGRE

easy life

Ah, yeah, yeah

I'm a homewrecker, ayy, ayy
A scotch bonnet pepper, ayy, ayy
It's a dangerous day to be you, ayy, ayy, ayy
Runnin' out of wriggle room, ayy, ayy
I'ma do whatever you say
I'm a cellophane can you see through, ayy, ayy, ayy

Now this swamp's looking more like an ocean
Green with envy, water gushing out
The worst things are always unspoken

Yeah
I spent a fortune on psychiatry
If you're gonna kill me do it quietly
Floating 'cause you took it so lightly
And that's so like you
You're testing my sobriety
But that's alright with me
And if it's what you need

I'll be your ogre
I'll be your ogre

I've been feeling woozy, ayy, ayy
A little dusty, ayy, ayy
It's a dangerous day to be you, ayy, ayy, ayy
Living digital, it's binary, that side of me has died
But you brought a gun to a knife fight

I'm defenceless here, out in the open
Green with envy, patience wearing out
The worst things are always unspoken

Yeah
I spent a fortune on psychiatry
If you're gonna kill me do it quietly
Floating 'cause you took it so lightly
And that's so like you
You're testing my sobriety
But that's alright with me
And if it's what you need

I'll be your ogre
I'll be your ogre

I'm a homewrecker
A scotch bonnet pepper
It's a dangerous day to be you
