

pop tarts

easy life

I got space and time to walk you to the edge
I might be feeling blue but got a pink and yellow mindset
And when I can't see, I picture you in the sunset
And when I think I can't breathe, it's 'cause you're inside of my head
I can't, I can't forget

We're pop tarts, shine brighter than pop art
Sweet enough for the most part
We keep it lowkey but just don't start
'Cause I'm involved and I'm on top
Finger on the trigger, no safe lock
You're like pop pop and I drop hot
And it's a car park, not a parking lot
But just meet me there and I'll pick you up
Few drinks and a pick me up
Ice splash from a sippy cup
Got on OX lead and a Biggie bop (Let's turn it up)
Pole dance on a candy cane
Turbulence on my jet plane
Let's duplicate, don't complicate and we'll stay the same

I got space and time to walk you to the edge
I might be feeling blue but got a pink and yellow mindset
And when I can't see, I picture you in the sunset
And when I think I can't breathe, it's 'cause you're inside of my head
And I can't, I can't forget

We're fucked up, I can never sleep past two o'clock
Head's been turned by the bright lights
And the high heights that I've been dreaming of
But you pull the plug on that mad stuff
Turn my stomach like a bad drug
Kit Kat straight like a wet dog
And I'm in deep and I'm on top
And I'm touch-typing your password into your laptop
My storyline's wrapped up
Memory smacked up
Pour something strong in my sippy cup
Take a red pill, they're hating us
Timezone sticking and we're taking off
No limits now, no chain smoking, no silly stuff, babe

I got space and time to walk you to the edge
I might be feeling blue but got a pink and yellow mindset
And when I can't see, I picture you in the sunset
And when I think I can't breathe
It's 'cause you're inside of my head
And I can't, I can't forget
