

tears

easy life

(If I ever get to see you again)
It's a hard life, I can't lie, it's been a rush
(I would never let you go my friend)
But I'm lucky I got friends that I trust
(I would take away the rain)
Yeah
(And put a smile upon your face)
And I'll keep those teardrops from falling

It's a hard life, I can't lie, it's been a rush
In the hard times, lucky I got friends that I trust
It was easy in my twenties, now I got to lawyer up
Give me air-miles or a fair trial, steady yes
I'm fragile, I can't drink like I used to
I got homies back home that can still act nuke-proof
Now they only ever see me on YouTube

(If I ever get to see you again)
It's a hard life, I can't lie, it's been a rush
(I would never let you go my friend)
But I'm lucky I got friends that I trust
(I would take away the rain)
Yeah
(And put a smile upon your face)
And I'll keep those teardrops from falling

To my absent friends who never stay in touch
And when we send DM's they only gather dust
Say my accent's changed from my native tongue
I drink plant-based milk, it's a gateway drug
But there's no use crying over oat milk
Seen artists come and go, I've got survivor's guilt
But I'll (keep those teardrops from falling)

(If I ever get to see you again)
It's a hard life, I can't lie, it's been a rush
(I would never let you go my friend)
But I'm lucky- But I'm lucky I got friends that I trust
(I would take away the rain)
Yeah
(And put a smile upon your face)
And I'll keep those teardrops from falling

If I ever get to see you again
I would never let you go my friend
I would take away the rain
And put a smile upon your face
And I'll keep those teardrops from falling
