

Until That Day

Easy Star All-Stars

Woe yoe, woe yoe!
Babylon, Babylon, Babylon . . .

Chorus
Take your money and go away, Caesar
Take your money and go away, Caesar
Won't shut my mouth until that day, Caesar
Take your money and go away, Caesar
Take your money and go away, Caesar
Won't shut my mouth until that day, Caesar

Verse
There'll be no lasting peace; until that day
No world citizenship; until that day
No international morality; until that day
Says the Power of the Trinity
The African continent, Lord; until that day
Shall not know peace; until that day
But we will fight if necessary; until that day
For we know we have the victory

Chorus
So go away, Caesar
Take your money and go away, Caesar
Won't shut mouth until that day, Caesar
Take your money and go away, Caesar
Take your money and go away, Caesar
Won't shut my mouth until that day, Caesar

DJ
Watch this; JAH!
We show them love and all they showed us was vulgarity
No similarity so change up unu (your) polarity
With that barbarity I have no familiarity
Easy Star's priority is to fight for solidarity
Philosophy that gives only one race superiority
Care for the majority - not the minority
The minority of course has no authority
They only have inferiority, woe!

Chorus
So go away, Caesar
Take your money and go away, Caesar
Won't shut my mouth until that day, Caesar
Take your money and go away, Caesar
Take all of your money and go away, Caesar
Run up my mouth until that day, Caesar

No, no, no, no!
Babylon, Babylon, Babylon . . .

Verse
We have to chant down the dollar; until that day
Hotter fire pon the dollar; until that day
Your bitter wine me nah guh swallow; until that day
Iniquity me nah guh follow
Do away with the benjamins; until that day

It is the root ah whole ah heap ah sin; until that day
We want a world with no benjamins; until that day
Just like it was in the beginning

Chorus

You've go to go away, Caesar
Take your money and go away, Caesar
Run up my mouth until that day, Caesar
Take your money and go away, Caesar
Take all of your money and go away, Caesar
Run up my mouth until that day, Caesar

Verse

There'll be no lasting peace
No world citizenship
No international morality
Haile Selassie I prophecy
The African continent, Lord
Shall not know peace
But we will fight if necessary
For we know we have the victory
