

Better Ways To Self Destruct

Easyworld

It was never such a beautiful thing
You hear the cynics and the pessimists sing
I don't want to sit and talk about the bad times, baby
There's better ways to self destruct
I'm sorry but it just isn't true
You'd find a million better things you could do
If you were born into the body of someone special
You'd never be alone again

What's up now?
It isn't anything
But everybody self destructs so easy
What now girl?
It's really nothing
But everybody self destructs and we blame the world

I'm sorry but it just isn't fun
To blame yourself for all the shit that you've done
You see, cos picking holes in me is just far too easy
There's better ways to self destruct
Find you something more important to do
Than sit and worry about what's happened to you
You see cos you and me, we ain't nothing but worm food baby
There's better ways to self destruct

Don't make it hard now
Because it's an easy world
You could make it harder
But it's an easy world
It's an easy world
