Aye

Aye, I done made some bad decisions but I'm only human
But I'm only human, aye
HeyTaewon

I done made some bad decisions but I'm only human
Pass you the pole a couple times and you ain't wanna use it
I put my trust into a bitch and that shit left me hurt
Aye

I done made some bad decisions but I'm only human
Pass you the pole a couple times and you ain't wanna use it
I put my trust into a bitch and that shit left me hurt
Ain't nothing changed about my cousin but his paper worth
Can't believe that nigga told, he was the coldest stepper
She want some love but she a groupie, so I told her "Never"
Brother I got you, if I said it, you could call whenever Respect the homie as a man, he changin' for the better

They finally let my brother out, I hope he movin' right
I'm tryna move us out the South before we lose our life
Or prolly lose our rights, the brodie gone, he can't see the light
That nigga 23 and 1, can't even see the time (Aye)
But he was ready for the consequences
I'm tryna make it and be more than just a Stockton nigga
When I got out, it hurt my soul, the bro was poppin' niggas (Aye)
If it came down to it, would you really ride?
Can't trust a soul, I'm too the neck on them homicides
Casino gone, I know you see the difference in my eyes
I been tryna slide, somebody gotta die

I done made some bad decisions but I'm only human
Pass you the pole a couple times but you ain't wanna use it
I put my trust into a bitch and that shit left me hurt
Ain't nothing changed about my cousin but his paper worth
