EBK Jaaybo

(Moneybag Mont, you makin' hits)

(I know you so well, so well)
(I mean I can do anything, that he can)
Look
(I've been, pretty-)

They say love will get you killed
Shit, I think I'm ready to die for it
The homie did some snake shit
I still will slide for him
How could you be fake to me if I was real
Shit, I wonder who gon' slide for me if I get killed

I wonder who gon' ride if they give me life
Can't even look inside the mirror, it's a scary sight
Kasino died
I don't ever think I'll love again
I learned forever ain't forever
It's gon' always end

I hope they judge a nigga right
'Cause I got dedications
It's a privilege to be free
That's why they made the system
Police threw my life away
At least I helped my niggas
I'm built for this
So I'm gon' ride it out or do the sentence

I was taught to always hold your brother
When they fall
I had to learn that when you left
That you can't bring 'em all
They say I'm out here taking lives
The judge take 'em too
God, my case is in Your hands
I'll leave it up to You

I ain't changin' for nobody
Imma change for me
Plus I got kids on the way
That I may never see
My search for love ended quick
I'm tryna find some peace

Aye

They say love will get you killed
Shit, I think I'm ready to die for it
The homie did some snake shit
I still will slide for him
How could you be fake to me if I was real
Shit, I wonder who gon' slide for me if I get killed

I wonder who gon' ride if they give me life
Can't even look inside the mirror, it's a scary sight

Kasino died
I don't ever think I'll love again
I learned forever ain't forever
It's gon' always end
