

I Hate You

EBK Jaaybo

Balenciaga sweaters over there, feel like it's just hella regular, nigga, I'm like Fuck that, you know what I'm sayin'? What's up with it, Don?
You know, you feel me? Dirty Drac' for real
On mamas (Yeah)
Ayy, don't let my brother bang, bruh
Don't let my brother crash out, man
I would never, I'd crash out before
I'd crash out before
Lil Play back there, Lil Play
Playin', Play out too?
Yup
Shooters in the cut
See, niggas don't even know the- (You out too?)
Niggas don't even know the shooters out
Oh my God
Hold on, I'm finna record this song, bro, I'ma call you back
Ayy
21
On my mama, nigga
Ayy, look

You say you love me, then you hate a nigga
I'm from the G, but the Valley really raised a nigga
I told my story honestly, how could I say it different?
Feel good to look back on your life and see you made a difference
Rather take lil' brother slidin', we done spinned before
Kindhearted, I forgave you when you did me wrong
My codefendant fraudulent, I should've slid alone
Shouldn't have forced him in some shit he ain't did on his own, for real

Don't fuck with blood, he need assistance, I'ma come today
Them niggas know where I be at, they ain't gon' come this way
When you immune to the hurt, you learn to love the pain
I knew your love was being forced no matter what you claim
Send my condolences and tears, then we slide for the fallen
Niggas ain't Kasino World, you ain't slide when they offed him
Cherish your brothers while they here, you gon' cry when they chalk 'em
Know that boy not be trusted, he lied when he talkin'
Murder came before the happiness, I'm thankful for it
The reaper callin' on my name, and I just can't ignore him
I can't forget my brother Daveon, I'm waitin' for him
Forever keep him in my blessings, I been prayin' for him
It's only shooters on this block, 'cause they just slid again
Shoot the pistol like a bitch, he too feminine
Life support, he don't know if he'll ever live again
So bipolar, say you love me, then you switch again
You on that shit again

You say you love me, then you hate a nigga
I'm from the G, but the Valley really raised a nigga
I told my story honestly, how could I say it different?
Feel good to look back on your life and see you made a difference
Rather take lil' brother slidin', we done spinned before
Kindhearted, I forgave you when you did me wrong
My codefendant fraudulent, I should've slid alone
Shouldn't have forced him in some shit he ain't did on his own, for real, 21
