

Last Conversation

EBK Jaaybo

Aye, I don't want to make this sound complicated but this might be our last conversation

I don't want to make this sound complicated, but this gone be our last conversation. I express the way I feel when I'm intoxicated. If it's real it's gone last long, this could be my last song

The streets real baby pray for me, might have to do a lil time could you just wait for me

This shit never last long

My heart broke so it's fuck love, can't afford to buy another pill

Still thuggin can't afford to be the one who's killed. I'm in the trenches I can't leave my Niggas in the field

I can sign a record deal if I stop doing drills
This for my mama & my granny

Baby can't you tell I'm not happy, promise you the world don't gotta offer me the sand

Everytime we talk it's like the same shit I say

Realest Nigga livin all my other niggas fake
Forever 21 & never switchin on my gang

Can't you say the same? Real niggas hard to find, was only 15 I had to do a lil time

My brother ain't my brother he ain't rockin like he was

Rock how you suppose when you rockin with a thug

Love at first sight, promise imma treat you right, you talkin bout a bitch, this a letter to the mic