Ayy

My closest niggas said they see a change in me

Ayy

Ayy

I was confused when you said you seen a change in me
I'm livin' life long as my grave empty
Demons haunt my mind like I'm walkin' with a grave in me
I know my songs'll change your life, it done changed plenty
This all fun and games, but one move and this fame can end me
Connected to the hood spiritually, I miss her touch
The little shit mattered the most like when I picked you up
But you gone now
And that relationship type of shit ain't for me, I fell in love with a ho no w
Made drastic changes for the section that I'm bangin'
Damn near famous, but I keep the blicky by, I'm stayin' dangerous
Can't let no one know where I'm stayin', 'cause I still been fightin' cases
The bro a nerd, he had the gang on his page and I made him change it
Take it to the box if your life on the line, don't play with it
Popped somebody that was somebody, I hope you stay lit
Can't let my brother leave my presence with no cho, 'cause I was raised different
I thought they was my homies, but they wasn't, had to shake niggas
You caught a shh, ain't nothin' wrong with it
Crash dummy ridin' 'round with blick that don't belong to him
I heard his name on black and white, just off that, can't do a song with him
From the Pilgrim days to 7th Street, lil' Jaaybo been on niggas, ask about m e
Don't hit my phone talkin' 'bout Slo-Be, I'ma crash about him
We robbin' niggas for they existence, ain't no more lashin' houses
He killed your brother, get the drop and leave him smacked about it
Smoke a sucka, then get on Instagram and I laugh about it
Wish I could do more for my brothers while they in the pen'
It come to me, they understand, because they know I spin
You make that statement on me, we been close since we was lil' kids
It turned me to a demon, system turned my co-D's to a bitch
Blocked your number, don't call my phone, it ain't good no more
Brother don't slide, I told him he ain't from the hood no more
And if you feelin' lost inside, just put it in your songs

Man, I done lost so many niggas to this shit

I mean, I- I think this shit cursed

It's like a nigga walk around in poison ivy and we don't even know it

We think this shit cool

Huh, it's crazy a nigga'll buy

A nigga'll buy a new chain before he a new set of eyes, huh

You feel me? You gotta watch the niggas closest to you too

You feel me?

All my niggas solid, though

I'ma blow for mine

If yours ain't gon' do the same, you shouldn't be fuckin' with that nigga, n igga's a bitch

Southeast, that nigga nice

Hah

Ahah
