

Someone You Love

EBK Jaaybo

Ay Ecko, turn it up
Yeah

Broke my heart, lost both my brothers in the same year
I hugged on me momma when he died
Wiped them tears from your eyes
We gon' get it back in blood
How you ain't slide for your niggas?
Supposed to crash when you lose someone you love
When you lose someone you love
When you lose someone you love

Like why you leave your lil' bro? I'm feeling pain here
Broke my heart, lost both my brothers in the same year
Felt alright before you died, I shoulda called niggas
I can't even enjoy this shit without my dog with me
Too far gone, if it's a murder I'm involved with it
Like how the fuck my brother gone and I just saw niggas?

Why there's so much pain in my life?
These diamonds don't mean nothing
Man, I changed on my life
I know she only love me 'cause my name, that ain't right
She told me, "Choose the streets or her" – that's too hard to decide, yeah

But I didn't feel betrayed, felt protected by these angels
Dumb as fuck, he fallin' for these bitches that ain't faithful
If you ever did a nigga wrong, I still don't hate you
Imagine when you need me but can't name a time you came through

Niggas I slid and killed for ain't do no spinnin'
Feel like I'm walking in a body with no soul in it
And I know I'm a soul stripper
Ain't happy here, I can't keep going without bro with me

I hugged on me momma when he died
Wiped them tears from your eyes
We gon' get it back in blood
How you ain't slide for your niggas?
Supposed to crash when you lose someone you love
When you lose someone you love
When you lose someone you love

Like why you leave your lil' bro? I'm feeling pain here
Broke my heart, lost both my brothers in the same year
Felt alright before you died, I shoulda called niggas
I can't even enjoy this shit without my dog with me
Too far gone, if it's a murder I'm involved with it
