I can feel you're here
Hear your voice
Singing that fatefull song
I can feel your hands close to me
Like sun and earth at dawn

Why did you leave here?
Why your voice seem so sad and lost?
Why did you leave here?
Why come back?
Why this ghost from the past?

One day you said to me "I have to go"

Then you kissed me and disappeared through the fog

If only that letter had no arrived

And this day was the last I saw you alive

While I was in hell Every night in my dreams I heard your sweet voice Awakening my hopes to return

Rain can't clean my tears

And nobody but you can feel my pain

My life is an endless nightmare

I have come to save you Take my hand Leave this life behind

I don't want to die Take my hand Leave this life behind

I don't want to die Stay away from me Let me forgive

(Surrender to me)

Why did u have to go one day?

If only you hadn't gone to this stupid war I still loving you so much

But you can't say this to me

So take you ball and chain

Get out of here

Leave me alone...
