No joke this time, I'm really ghosting
Yeah, he's got Margielas but he's still posing
I woke up sober, now I'm J.K. Rowling
I'll wake up soulless one day, I just know it
I only have one heart and it's still broken
But if I give it to you would you hold it?
And if it went missing then would you notice?
And would you kiss me if I gave you roses?
Why are you afraid? Why are you afraid?
Wake up with no face, who am I today?
Why are you afraid? What are you afraid of?
Look the other way, uh, you're all the same
Don't let it escape (Don't let it escape)
You gotta kill that snake (You gotta kill that snake)
Feel like RS-68s (Like RS-68s)
Burn out and get wasted
