

Dead Inside Dark Outside

Ecco2k

Dead inside, but I still smile
I got nine lives in the x-files
Dark outside, let the moth fly
Audi pass by, bloody red eyes
Drained the night, blood moon cried twice
Silver shine bright, #NoLife Gang rides
Stain the knife, stepped on blind mice
Stepped on white ice, then I changed price

Headless, razor-wire necklace
You look so helpless, let me be your weapon
I got no love, but it's whatever
I don't remember any happy endings
Play dead, I'm escaping
I'm a famous ghost, no location
I told them go talk to my agent
Faded in the suburbs getting braided
Aching when will I ever be painless
Medication, memories erasing
Drain Angel stay under surveillance
Still waiting, I've been gone for ages
Went to LA, got a facelift
I just want someone to play with
And lately I've been feeling jaded
Stay away from mirrors, cause I still don't talk to strangers

Dead inside, but I still smile
I got nine lives in the X5
Dark outside, let the moth fly
Audi pass by, bloody red eyes
Drained the night, blood moon cried twice
Silver shine bright, #NoLife Gang rides
Stain the knife, stepped on blind mice
Stepped on white ice, then I changed price
Dead inside, but I still smile
