

Desire Is A Trap

Ecco2k

You won't leave me
You won't [?]
You won't talk to me
Talk to me

Now I'm on the head of the arrow, and I'm the head of the Fountain
Come to think about it, I can't wrap my head around it
Liquid nitrogen around us, flowing like a river downward
Staying stiff and rigid under pressure, crush you into powder
Pick petals from your flowers, oh, you love me, oh, you love me
Not
There's only one way down a tower, even if your hair is long
I claw my way towards the top and let it fall down to the bottom
Every day I swallow pain, but I still taste it

Wash wash wash wash wash the pain away
3, 3, 3, 3 stars on the shield OK
Walk walk walk walk walking with the faith
Drip drop rain won't stop on a sunny day
Wash wash wash wash wash the pain away
3, 3, 3, 3 stars on the shield OK
Walk walk walk walk walking with the faith
Drip drop rain won't stop on a sunny day

Up hill easy the diamond top
We draw the line and then we cross
We hold the light it opens up
Prepare the way the trust in us
The void to face be bold enough
The faith corrupts the self destructs
I take that path I make that jump
To drop below to take me up

Show me the virtue of the way
Show me virtue all the way

Show me the virtue of the way
Show me virtue all the way
Show me the virtue of...
Show me virtue of...
La la la la la
La la la la

You won't hold me
You won't hurt me
You won't touch me
Touch me
